DTAED: 28TH AUGUST, 2006.

P.C.

1. The order of acquittal recorded by the learned Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Jath is questioned by the application for leave. With the assistance of the learned APP, we have perused the impugned order. Cogent reasons have been given by the learned Judge in para 14 of the judgment for reaching to the conclusion of not guilty. Looking to the fact that it was basically a dispute between closed relations and proved eniminy between the parties, absence of cogent evidence can be a sufficient ground for recording the order of acquittal. We therefore see no reason to interfere. Application is rejected.
